

Thank You!

Support from the entire community is what has always made the Holmes possible. Over the years, these incredible organizations stepped up in a huge way to show that having a performing arts center in rural Minnesota is not only important but essential. We are beyond grateful to all of these organizations and our Friends of the Theatre. Please join us in thanking them by shopping local and visiting these great businesses!

HISTORIC HOLMES
THEATRE

Welcome!

We are very excited to introduce our upcoming season which includes a great variety of some familiar artists and new performances. These past couple of years have been filled with many changes and construction projects. We are delighted to have those enhancements behind us so you can enjoy exceptional live entertainment in a more comfortable and accessible facility. We look forward to you stepping inside and seeing the world at the Historic Holmes Theatre.

So much good is happening in this corner of Detroit Lakes! We hope you'll visit often for shows, art classes, museum tours, special events, or even just to walk on our penny floor. The arts bring people together, and we're so happy to live our mission to provide quality experiences to learn, grow, and play in the visual and performing arts!
